

From 2010 to 2020, the cost of insulin increased exponentially. According to the Health Care Cost Institute, annual per capita insulin costs for diabetics with employer-sponsored insurance averaged $2,864 in 2012; by 2016, average costs had climbed to $5,705. Based on this information, estimate the annual per capita cost of insulin in 2021.